Re: Leroy Jones v. Mega Home & Linen, Inc. and Shaun Zakaria
Case No. 1:22-CV-6010 (RPR) (CLP)

Dear Judge Pollak,

I am the defendant. Happy New Year, Your Honor. I am writing to respond to the attorneys' letter about my E-mails.

First of all, I did not text the attorney. I have spoken with the attorney on several occasions by phone and have E-mailed the attorney. I do not text him and any text messages he claims to receive are not from me and are fabricated by him to make me look bad. Even the emails that I did send him he has edited.

The E-mails I sent are not illegal or threatening. I have a right to send E-mails to the attorney. I have been asking for documents and showing my documents and explaining that there is no case for unpaid wages for the last two years. Which he provided incomplete and with no answers to any of my requests.

As I have asked before, please hold the conference in person at the courthouse. I am not comfortable appearing telephonically. We have a conference scheduled already on February 11, 2025. I want to make sure that the plaintiff Mr. Jones is at the conference. Can you order the plaintiff to attend the conference with his attorney?

Mr. Jason Mizrahi is falsely claiming intimidation and lying about everything in this lawsuit. It is because he has no case. His client has no case. I have sent Mr. Mizrahi proof that Mr. Jones was properly paid during the short amount of time he worked for me. Mr. Mizrahi has nothing to support his case and his claims are complexly fabricated just like the text messages he claims I send.

I thank Your Honor for considering this application.

Respectfully submitted,

Hon. Cheryl L. Pollak, Chief U.S.M.J.
